MAIO HOUSEHOLD · ROOM BY ROOM · STANDING WEEK

The House, Room by Room

Every job filed under the room where it happens — that is where you look, and how you see it undone. Five colours: Ricardo, Julie, Lily, the domestic, the gardener. No switches, no dates. Domestic Mon, Tue, Thu, Sat; gardener twice a week — Lily runs both. Ricardo pays for everything.

How this is built

The rules behind the rooms

1. One owner per job per day. The backup only steps in when the owner says so.
2. Rooms, not categories. A job lives where it happens — the pool test is outside, the bills are in the study, homework is at the kitchen table. If a job does not belong to a room, it does not belong on the list.
3. The split follows the days people are in. Domestic Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday for cleaning, laundry and the deep clean; Lily covers Wednesday, Friday and Sunday. The gardener takes the garden twice a week and nothing else — the pool stays with Ricardo. Lily runs both of them: their days, their standard and the list of what is still outstanding.
4. The kitchen belongs to Julie and Lily — with one exception: the braai is Ricardo's when he lights it. He pays for all of it, drives the road, runs bath and bed, and keeps the school admin.
5. Feeding is not a chore. The nursery sits outside the fairness maths — the 17:00–20:00 window and the nights are why the rest is distributed the way it is. Nights are Julie's, one line, 22:00–06:00.
6. No configurations. No "Ricardo away", no custody switch, no helper toggle. Everyone is home, the children are always here, and the board runs until a cell changes.

Fixed points

- DOMESTIC Mon, Tue, Thu, Sat — cleaning, laundry, uniforms.
- GARDENER Twice a week, drawn Tuesday and Friday. Garden and outside only.
- STAFF Lily runs both — days, standards, the list. Managed, not counted.
- NIGHTS Julie takes every night, 22:00–06:00, one line. Bath and the baby's washing every second day.
- HOMEWORK Every school day, both girls, rotating Ricardo → Julie → Lily.
- BOXES Packed the night before — Friday has no cell. Lunch is the meal at home; the boxes are a separate job.
- MONEY Ricardo pays. The board schedules and reminds; it never approves or sends.
- BINS Sunday night, with the house walk-round.

Room standards are the household's own. Timings from the Reddam House Durbanville calendar; refuse and recycling per the City of Cape Town schedule; the pool on a standard skim / test / backwash cycle. Hours are computed from the minutes here. The domestic's week, the gardener's week and the check-and-plan list (Julie Wednesday, Lily Thursday) are drawn as week grids on The Maio Household Week, the last three sheets. Standing week, no dates. Nothing here is medical instruction — the midwife's word beats this board.
