The Maio Household Week

Four parts, seven days, one colour per person. Across a row: who owns the job; down a column: whose day. A standing week, no switches — the three plan sheets follow.
Ricardo pays for all of it.

Who is who

R Ricardo
Pays for everything

J Julie
Nights, 22:00–06:00

L Lily
Runs the domestic and the gardener

D Domestic

G Gardener

K Children
Donatella & Gianna

The letter in the corner of a cell names its owner, so a black-and-white print still reads.

In this binder

Every sheet carries its section number on the right-hand edge and its sheet number at the foot. File it behind that tab; when a cell changes, reprint that sheet only. The live copy is always at targetpraks.github.io/2026-11-07-the-week-maio-household.html.

The week on one sheet

All four parts together, for the fridge. Each part has its own sheet, larger, behind its tab.

RICARDO'S LANE

Drop-off, every pick-up, extra-murals, homework Mon and Thu, bath and bed, Sofia's bath on Sunday, school admin, Sunday walk-round and bins, Friday take-out, the braai when he lights it. He pays for the house.

WHO PAYS

Ricardo pays for everything — bills, fees, groceries, the domestic, the gardener, petrol, anything signed. The board schedules; it never approves or sends.

Domestic Mon, Tue, Thu, Sat; gardener Tue and Fri — Lily runs both. Sunday night Ricardo walks the house and puts the bins out; the pool and car are his. Julie checks the consumables, Lily buys.

WHO IS IN THE HOUSE

Domestic Mon, Tue, Thu, Sat. Gardener Tue and Fri — outside only; the pool is Ricardo's. Lily runs both. Sunday the house is ours.

WORTH CONFIRMING

Laundry sits inside the domestic's four days; the refuse night is checked against the street — City of Cape Town collections and recycling.

NOTES

The domestic — the week

TIME	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat	Sun

15:00–16:00	Laundry · floors ☐	Laundry · uniforms ☐		Laundry · floors ☐		Laundry · uniforms ☐

Four days, eight to four, lunch at twelve. Monday is beds, linen and the braai washed; Tuesday kitchen and ironing; Thursday the girls' rooms and the study; Saturday the whole house and the deep job. Lily runs her — the days, the standard, the list ticked off before she goes.

WEEK 1

Windows, inside and out, and the tracks.

WEEK 2

Fridge and freezer emptied, shelves washed, mattress turned.

WEEK 3

Curtains down and washed, skirting boards, door tops.

WEEK 4

Rugs shampooed, upholstery, cupboards inside.

The standard: bathrooms dry, floors free of grit, surfaces clear, nothing left on the stairs.

NOTES

The gardener — the week

TIME	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat	Sun
08:00–10:00		Front — mow ☐			Front — hedges ☐
10:00–12:00		Front — beds & edges ☐			Solar panel wash ☐
Lunch 12:00–13:00		Lunch			Lunch
13:00–15:00		Back — beds ☐			Braai area ☐
15:00–16:00		Back — clippings ☐			Irrigation · tools ☐

Tuesday and Friday, eight to four, lunch at twelve. Front garden in the morning, back garden after lunch. The lawn is mown once a week, on the Tuesday, and the solar panel on the geyser is washed once a month. The pool stays with Ricardo.

WEEK 1
Feed and mulch the beds; lawn fertiliser.

WEEK 2
Irrigation — drippers, timers, leaks, the pump.

WEEK 3
Trees — dead wood out, low branches up, shrubs shaped.

WEEK 4
Pests and weeds, then tools cleaned and hung up.

SPRING
Feed and mulch, seed the bare patches, stake what is tall.

SUMMER
Water early, shade the seedlings, watch for pests after rain.

AUTUMN
Leaves cleared and composted, lawn scarified.

WINTER
Prune, lift bulbs, feed the soil, plan the beds.

The standard: no bare patches left unsown, no cuttings left in the beds, nothing sprayed on a windy day, the gate shut behind him. Anything structural — a wall, a pump, a tree down — comes to Ricardo before it is touched.

Julie plans Sunday, checks Wednesday; Lily buys Thursday, tops up Monday. Lunch is the meal at home; the boxes are a separate job, packed the night before, so Friday has no cell. Friday dinner take-out, Sunday lunch out, Sunday dinner light — and the braai is Ricardo's when he lights it.

STOCK NEVER RUNS OUT

Wednesday Julie checks food and household consumables on one list. Thursday Lily buys, Monday she tops up. Nappies and wipes are Julie's on Sunday.

- [ ] Milk · bread · eggs · butter · cheese · yoghurt
- [ ] Fruit — apples, bananas, berries, what is in season
- [ ] Vegetables — tomatoes, cucumber, carrots, potatoes, onions, spinach
- [ ] Rice · pasta · flour · sugar · oil · coffee · tea · juice
- [ ] Chicken · mince · fish · frozen peas · stock
- [ ] Box fillers — biscuits, raisins, crackers, cheese sticks, a treat
- [ ] Sofia — cereal, purée, her milk

Homework every school day, one sitting, rotating Ricardo → Julie → Lily and carrying into next week. Ricardo drives, runs bath and bed, keeps the school admin. Uniforms are washed by the domestic and checked by Lily; Sunday night is bag pack, Ricardo's.

THE ROTATION

Homework every school day, five sittings, Ricardo → Julie → Lily: 2 · 2 · 1 this week, even next. Boxes are packed the night before, so Friday has no cell.

FIXED POINTS

Drop-off 07:30, doors close 08:00. Grade 1 out 13:30, Donatella 14:00, aftercare 13:30/14:00, field collection 15:00, Friday 13:15 — Reddam House Durbanville calendar.

Julie feeds her, takes every night in one line, sterilises, stocks nappies and wipes. Lily washes her clothing every second day; bath every second day, and Sunday is Ricardo's. Hours, not tasks.

JULIE'S WINDOW

17:00–20:00 is Sofia — feeding and settling. Dinner, baths and bedtime belong to someone else in that hour.

NIGHTS

Julie takes every night, 22:00–06:00, one line. So the morning run is Ricardo's and the kitchen is Julie's.
